DDW-101

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES AND STATUS REPORT FOR THE DD/ICS--13 February 1985CIPC Organizational Activities

- The draft Combat Intelligence Report has been forwarded to task force representatives for their review and comments at a meeting on 14 February.
- The Cruise Missile Working Group met on 8 February to review the draft status report for the DCI. Comments received are being incorporated in a new draft which will be completed by 15 February.
- Comments on the draft Terrorism Study are being received. The NIO/CT-NARC has some concerns about the thrust and content of the study. (See attached memorandum.) Work continues separately on reformatting the study to bring it more in line with CIPC requirements.
- The Narcotics follow-up report for the DCI/DDCI was forwarded to the CIPC Members for their information on 11 February.
- In addition, the CBW Study was forwarded to the CIPC Members on 11 February for their information and implementation as approved by the DCI.
- The Arms Control Intelligence Staff (ACIS) report to Congress on CBW treaty monitoring is still being revised. We plan to follow its development closely, and ensure that there are no references to the CIPC study or of the CIPC subcommittee in the final report.

CBW Intelligence Subcommittee:

- The DCI CBW Use Working Group, chaired by  held its final meeting on 7 February. At the meeting, Mr. David Low, the NIO at Large relayed the DCI's comments on the CIPC CBW Study as they related to the "Use Committee." Because one of the recommendations in the CIPC study approved by the DCI was that the DCI's "Use Committee" (the Interagency Working Group on CBW/Toxin Use) be disestablished,  declared that at adjournment the group would be disbanded. In discussing the prospects for the other CBW-related groups,  indicated that the CIPC CBW Subcommittee also would be winding up its activities, and preparing a final report.
